

Internship and apprenticeship programme

April 2021

A Rewarding Career Path for Exceptional and Motivated Individuals

An internship at Andersen is a great opportunity to experience working at a professional services firm, and to learn how we help our clients stay on top of ever-changing tax rules.

We are currently accepting applications for internship placements in the Corporate Tax team at our London office.

Our internship programme is available to university graduates.

What will the role involve?

Interns serve as members of client facing service teams.

They are staffed on client engagements and receive formal and on-the-job training to develop their technical skills.

In this role, interns have the opportunity to assist in the preparation of UK tax returns for corporate entities, ranging from single stand-alone entities to large international groups. In addition, there will be exposure to tax planning, transactions and other advisory projects.

The team frequently assists Andersen US on UK corporate tax matters for international groups.

More information on the Corporate Tax team can be found here: <https://uk.andersen.com/services/businesses>

Knowledge and skill requirements

- Strong leadership, multitasking and organisational skills;
- Self-starter with initiative to seek out opportunities in a fast-paced environment;
- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal;
- Strong interpersonal skills; and
- Ability to interact with and gain the respect of all levels of internal and client personnel.

The internship is for a period of four months. You will be contracted to work 35 hours per week and you will receive a competitive salary.

A full time position at Andersen

Individuals who have completed our internship programme will be considered for a full time position as an apprentice.

If you are offered a position at Andersen, as well as beginning your professional career, you will have the opportunity to study for a professional tax qualification(s).

Our recruitment process is an important component of creating the Andersen culture. We dedicate considerable resources to finding the most talented professionals; individuals who are high achievers and enjoy working in a dynamic environment where their input is appreciated and rewarded. We offer a competitive salary in line with other tax and accountancy firms based in London.

How to Apply

If you are interested in our internship opportunity, please send your CV to gradcareers@uk.andersen.com together with a covering email or letter explaining why you are interested in the role. Please visit our website at uk.andersen.com for additional information on Andersen.
